7. Read a scary story.

A father goes to say "goodnight" to his little son. He always does this. His son can't sleep without it and his teddy bear.

The room is dark. The father looks at his son. The boy looks different. He has a very-very big smile.
"Are you okay?" the father asks.
The son says "Yes, but I can't sleep. There is a monster under my bed. Can you check?" He says with a smile.
The father looks under the bed. And ...
He sees his the same boy under the bed. The boy's face is white and he is very scared.
And ... he's got a teddy bear in his hand. It's his real son!
The real son whispers: "Daddy... there is someone in my bed."

How does the father understand that a boy under the bed is his real son?
