

Extreme weather conditions and parts of an ecosystem

Select which extreme weather these pictures are representing

During this type of extreme weather, what different things can occur?

During _____, the temperatures are really _____, and it can cause _____ fires, d _____ in people and animals, as well as f _____ in people.

What measures (medidas) can people take during this type of extreme weather?

STAY HEALTHY IN THE HEAT

Drink

Plan your day

Avoid going out in the

Stay cool

Make use of or set to cool.
Draw your blinds or curtains.

Help others

Check on friends, family and neighbours most at risk like the sick, elderly and young.

Dress down

Wear lightweight, long sleeved, light coloured, loose fitting clothes made from natural fibres, like or linen.

Soak

Take a cool shower or bath to help you cool down when you feel

Shade

Wear a or take an with you for shade if you're outside on a hot day.

Hot cars can be deadly

Don't leave or in cars. The temperature inside parked cars can double within minutes.

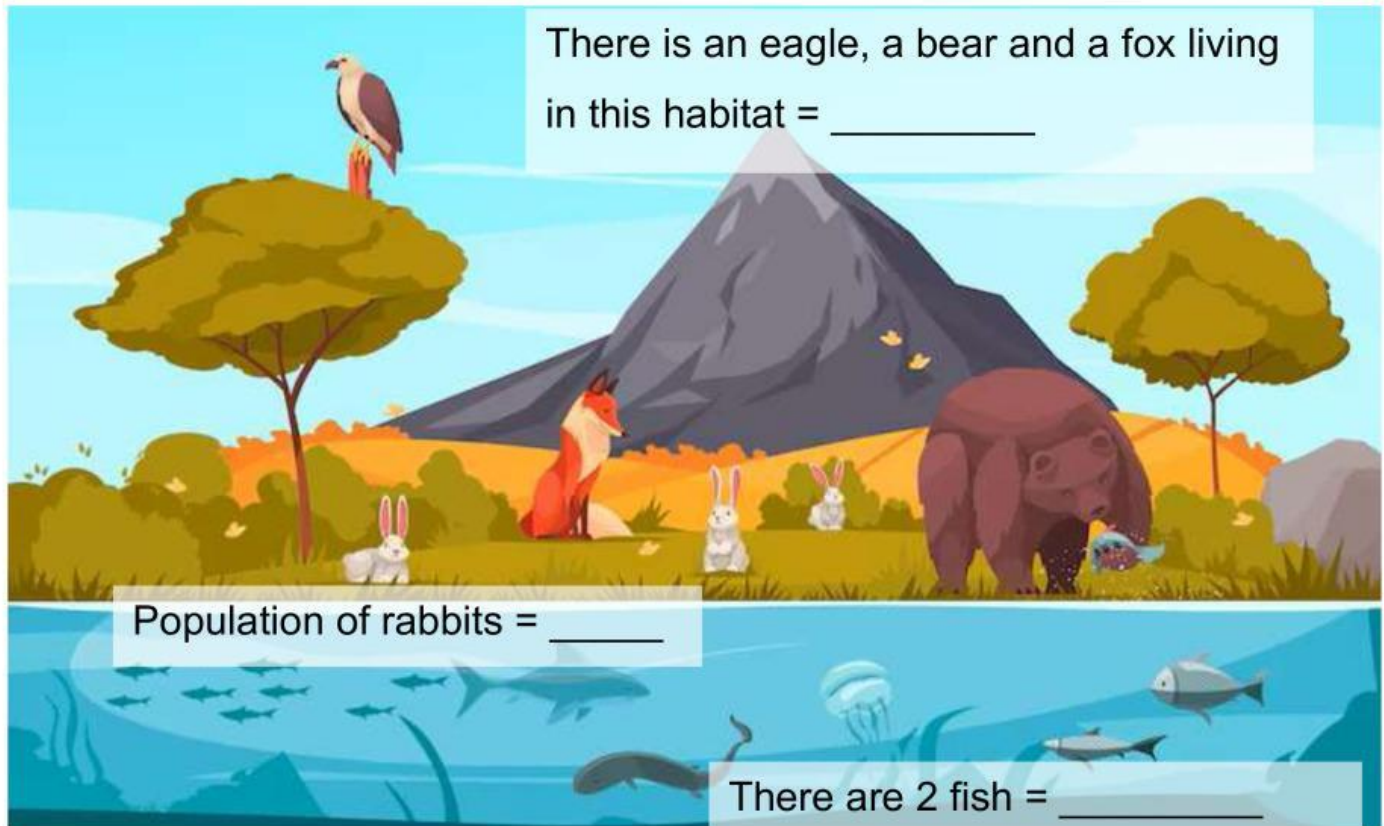

- > Know the signs and symptoms of heat related illness
- > See your if you are unwell
- > In an emergency call

The parts of an ecosystem

Label the parts of an ecosystem e.g. habitat, community and population.

_____ : The place where the living things grow and live.

_____ : The number of living things of the same species.

_____ : When two or more living things from different species interact with each other in the same habitat.