Ruben

1. Liam Drayton was a member in the group that organized the event.

2. When Liam Drayton was in high school, he could get $1000 from other people to give the students with money problem.

3. A few years after Liam Drayton left high school, the number of people coming from a different country to the UK increased.

4. Liam Drayton built an organization to help people from different country.

5. Liam Drayton did everything on his own.

6. The last organization Liam Drayton built only provided help for people in the UK.

Miguel

1. The people Miguel saw on the street were forced to leave their country because of a war.

2. When the Syrians left their countries, they travelled by a plane.

3. The Turkish people did not help the Syrian people with places to stay.

4. When there was a war, the Syrians were not helped with food and medicines.

5. 'Teach for all' is an online course.

6. It is impossible for the Syrians to stay in Turkey for a long period of time.

7. Because Syrian people belong to Turkey, the government helps them.

8. The Syrian people enter the program that focuses on their health.