¹ It was many years ago. There was a king and a queen. They had a daughter and lived in a beautiful castle. They were very happy.

² One day the king and the queen went for a walk near the castle and when they came back their daughter was not in her room.

³ An evil witch came to the castle on her dragon and took the princess.

⁴ The king and the queen were very sad. Suddenly a little fairy came to them. "Stop crying!" said the fairy, "I can help you!"

⁵ The fairy flew to the witch's house. When she came there, she saw a big green goblin.

⁶ The goblin didn't want to give the princess to the fairy. But the fairy knew that all goblins loved sweets. She gave a big bag of sweets and chocolates to the goblin and he ate all of them.

⁷ At that moment the fairy took the little princess and flew away.

⁸ Her friend unicorn helped the fairy to carry the princess to the castle.

⁹ When the king and the queen saw their daughter they were very happy!

¹⁰ They made a big party in their castle and all their friends came to the party.
