

Giving Directions

Goal: Learn how to ask for and give directions around your neighborhood in English.

Warm-up Questions:

- Have you ever moved to a new neighborhood or city?
- What important places are near your house?
- How do you ask for directions in English?
- How do you give direction?
- What polite expressions can you use to ask for help?

Vocabulary Preview:

Mosque, market, pharmacy, across from, next to, turn left/right, straight ahead, corner

Listening Activity

Listening Test Questions:

Short Answer Questions:

- Where is the minimarket located?

Answer: _____

- What is next to the minimarket?

Answer: _____

- Where can you find the traditional market?

Answer: _____

- What is near the bus stop?

Answer: _____

- What other places do the locals recommend?

Answer: _____

True or False

- The newcomer has lived in the neighborhood for a long time.
- The minimarket is next to a pharmacy.
- The traditional market is across from the mosque.
- The bus stop is near a warung that sells fried rice.
- The locals recommend visiting a park near the river.

Post-Test Activity

Activity:

Write a short text about your neighborhood and describe how to get to one important place (use the vocabularies from the listening activity).