

READING

1. Choose A, B or C to complete these conversations.

Before reading

- Do each question separately – they're not connected.
- Read each option A-C carefully and say the three possible dialogues in your head.
- Choose the best answer.

1. How about having a barbecue?

- A. Me too!
- B. That's better!
- C. That's a great idea!

2. Let's go to a football match!

- A. I don't really like sports
- B. You're welcome!
- C. It doesn't matter.

3. What shall we do today?

- A. No, sorry, I can't.
- B. Let's have a picnic.
- C. That's a good idea.

4. Shall we go to the zoo?

- A. Always.
- B. All right.
- C. All the time.

5. I'm bored!

- A. That sounds great!
- B. I don't agree.
- C. What about going into town?

2. Read the article about a boy who collects action figures and choose the best word (A, B or C) for each space.

Some people paint pictures in their free time. Other people are good (1) sport or music while others are keen (2) chess or computers. Eighteen-year-old Richard Jones doesn't do (3) of these things.

He has collected action figures since he was ten years old. He loved the film Star Wars at the time, (4) his sister bought him a figure of Luke Skywalker for his birthday. He bought (5) the Star Wars figures and then started on the superheroes: Spiderman, Superman, Batman, Wolverine, and the rest. Richard has 552 action figures in (6) collection so far. They're on shelves, in his wardrobe and all over the floor! So (7) do his relatives think?

His mum says: 'I don't mind! At least he (8) interested in something!'

His dad says: 'I can't get into his room!'
