

Phrasal Verbs for Travel - Conjugation

Conjugate the phrasal verbs into the four tenses below.

Phrasal Verb	Simple Past <small>No change OR - ed verb OR irregular verb</small>	Simple Present <small>base form OR verb + S</small>	Present Continuous <small>be + -ing verb</small>	Simple Future <small>be + going to + base form</small>
check in (to arrive and register at a hotel)	We _____ to the hotel earlier.	Can you _____ today at 3:00pm?	I _____ to the hotel right now.	Jason _____ later tonight around 6:00pm.
get off (to leave a bus or plane)	Henry _____ the bus and then went to the store.	Henry _____ everyday at 4:00pm.	It`s 4:00. Henry should be _____ the bus right now.	Henry _____ the bus in 5 minutes.
set off (to start a journey)	They _____ on their journey last week.	Every summer Elaine _____ for a trip to a different country.	We _____ for Mexico today!	I _____ for Mexico today!
hold up (a delay when travelling) CAN BE SEPARABLE	I was _____ at the airport because of the long line at security.	My children sometimes _____ me _____ in the morning and it makes me late for work.	Can you hurry up?! You _____ me _____.	You have too much homework! It _____ you _____.
take off (when a plane leaves the ground)	The plane _____ from Windsor at 5:00 this morning.	Air Canada flights to Toronto normally _____ in the morning.	Look! Two planes _____ at the same time!	The plane _____ at 8:00pm sharp.