B Self-cleaning Bottle
We all know it's important to stay healthy by drinking enough water, but we also know that we should avoid plastic bottles because they are bad for the environment. Now scientists have developed Self-cleaning Bottles. These bottles use UV technology which destroys chemicals and makes the water cleaner. This method is better for the environment and better for you. The bottles are perfect for people who love sport or who travel a lot. They come in a range of colours and make great gifts, too.

C Smart Coffee Cup
