

Natural and Man Made

Things we get from nature are natural things and those made by man are called man made things. A natural thing can be both living or non living. But the man made things are only non living.

Write 'N' for natural and 'M' for man made things against the items listed below :

