

Spelling Practice

TIP

Some singular nouns, like moose, do not change when they become plurals. When singular nouns end in f or fe, usually change the f or fe to v and add es: calf → calves. Some words are exceptions to this rule, such as chiefs. Words that end in ff also form the plural by adding s: cuff → cuffs. When singular nouns end in o, add s to form the plural: radio → radios. Some nouns that end in o take es to form the plural: potato → potatoes.

Spelling and Writing

Proofreading

The naturalist's journal entry below has eleven mistakes. Use the proofreading marks to correct them. Then, write the misspelled list words correctly on the lines.

ellesmere Island, may 19

I watched a pack of wolfs attack a herd of musk oxen today. The adults formed a circle around the calves. the pack killed aweak musk ox. The pack leaders, who are like the chieves of their group, ate first. People hold mistaken believes about wolves. They feel that they are a threat to the survival of the musk ox. Actually, they help this speeces by weeding out the sick animals. we put transmitter radioes on three musk oxen so that we can keep track of them.
