

Present perfect

0. I have taken (take) a lot of wonderful pictures with my new cell phone.

1. Mario and Luis never travel (never / travel) by plane.

2. I don't have (you have) anything to drink?

3. She hasn't visited (not visit) me since she moved to California.

4. You're amazing. You always perform (always / perform) in the school plays.

5. Where are you (you / be)? You don't answer my calls!

0. Learning Japanese / hard / learning Spanish
Learning Japanese is as hard as learning Spanish.
1. Playing the guitar / not fun / dancing
2. In England / drinking coffee / not popular / drinking tea
3. Ice skating / artistic / ballet
4. Singing in the shower / not scary / singing in public
5. Making new friends / important / getting good grades

0. She has done the same job for / since 30 years.
1. Leah and Katia have studied together for / since they were five.
2. This is our favorite band; we have listened to their music for / since years!
3. You can't be that tired! You have only done spinning for / since three days.
4. Peter has enjoyed that show for / since it started.
5. I have worked on my machine to recycle water for / since two years and I've finally finished!

Change the verb in each sentence from past to present perfect.

0. I ate sushi.

I have eaten sushi.

1. We went to New York.

2. My grandparents didn't sail on a boat.

3. Brian changed his look.

4. I didn't have a dog.

5. You learned to play the flute.
