

LISTENING TEST

Multiple-Choice Questions

A. Macro Skills

1. What is the main idea of the story?

A. The narrator learned how to use an old camera.

B. The narrator joined a digital storytelling competition and learned self-confidence.

C. The narrator won the storytelling competition.

D. The narrator studied photography.

2. What was the story mainly about?

A. The narrator's school trip.

B. The narrator's favorite teacher.

C. The narrator's experience making a digital story.

D. The narrator's grandfather's life.

3. What happened first?

- A. The narrator presented the story.
- B. The teacher encouraged the narrator to join.
- C. The narrator made the video.
- D. The competition ended.

4. What happened after the narrator made the story?

- A. The camera broke.
- B. The narrator got a new camera.
- C. The narrator presented the video and got applause.
- D. The narrator lost interest in storytelling.

5. What was the narrator's purpose in making the story?

- A. To remember her grandfather.
- B. To learn to edit videos.
- C. To make a funny film.
- D. To get a new camera.

6. How did the narrator feel at the end of the story?

A. Disappointed

B. Proud and thankful

C. Angry

D. Bored

7. What moral value can we learn from this story?

A. Success means winning every competition.

B. Technology is more important than people.

C. Every story has value and meaning.

D. Only old stories matter.

8. What is the purpose of this digital story?

A. To inform about photography.

B. To entertain and inspire through personal experience.

C. To advertise a product.

D. To describe a family member.

B. Micro Skills

9. What did the teacher say to the narrator?

A. "Don't join if you're not ready."

B. "You don't need a perfect story, you just need your story."

C. "Try to buy a new camera."

D. "You should tell your grandfather's story."

10. What does the word it in paragraph 2 refer to?

A. The competition

B. The video

C. The camera

D. The school

11. What does the word alive in “my story came alive” mean?

A. Real and full of feeling

B. Long and boring

C. Difficult and tiring

D. Funny and short

12. Which sentence shows the use of the past tense?

A. “I stay up late every night.”

B. “I stayed up late many nights.”

C. “I am staying up late now.”

D. “I will stay up late tomorrow.”

13. What can you tell from the narrator’s tone while speaking?

A. She was bored and annoyed.

B. She was excited and proud.

C. She was angry and disappointed.

D. She was sleepy and tired.

14. What kind of music might match the story's mood?

- A. Fast and energetic music
- B. Calm and emotional background music
- C. Loud rock music
- D. No music at all

15. What is the meaning of "worth telling"?

- A. Not interesting
- B. Easy to tell
- C. Valuable to share
- D. Difficult to explain