Unit 4: WHAT'S THE STORY

4.3. Dramatic Moments

A. READING

Exercise 2: Use the adjectives below to complete the sentences.

convincing – funny – imaginative – moving – original – powerful – spectacular – tense – tragic

1. The ending of Titanic is very __moving__ . Many people cry when they watch it.
2. The hero's speech was so _____ that everyone clapped.
3. The special effects in Avatar are _____ . The flying scenes look real!
4. Inside Out is really _____; it shows emotions as characters.
5. The story of Spider-Man is very _____; you can believe it could happen to a real person.
6. That comedy was _____; I laughed all the time!
7. The car chase scene was _____; I couldn't stop watching.
8. The idea for this film is very _____; I've never seen anything like it before.
9. Romeo and Juliet is a _____ love story because it ends sadly.

Exercise 2: Think of your favourite movie and describe it using the adjectives above.

- My favourite movie is (name of movie).
- It's a (film genre)
- It's really (adjective) because (reason).
- The story / ending / music / plot is (adjective).
- I think the main character is very (adjective).

Example:

My favourite movie is A Cinderella Story. It's a romance. It's really moving because Sam finds the courage to be herself. The story is powerful and the ending is very inspiring. I think the main character is very brave.

_____

_____

_____

_____

Keep moving forward

LIVEWORKSHEETS

B. GRAMMAR

TOO	too + Adj	The film is too long.
	too many + Countable Noun	There is too much noise.
	too much + Uncountable Noun	There are too many songs in the movie.
ENOUGH	Adj + enough	My sister isn't old enough to watch the film.
	enough + Noun	I didn't have enough popcorn.

Exercise 3: Complete each sentence so that it means the same as the first sentence. Use the words in brackets.

0. The main character in this book doesn't go to school because she's too poor. (rich)

→ The main character in this book doesn't go to school because she isn't rich enough.

1. I can't watch this! It's too boring! (interesting)

→ _____ .

2. Tim shouldn't watch this film because he isn't old enough. (young)

→ _____ .

3. At the cinema, they always give you more popcorn than you need. (too much)

→ _____ .

4. I couldn't see the movie because the cinema was full. (too many people)

→ _____ .

5. For me, the amount of action in this film is OK. (enough)

→ _____ .

6. I don't think Robert Downey Jr is too short to play a superhero. (tall)

→ _____ .

7. I have too little ketchup. Could you get me some more? (not enough)

→ _____ .

LIVEWORKSHEETS