Specialist Schools	12%	11%	10%
Grammar Schools	24%	19%	12%

Community Schools	12%	32%	58%

The (1).....illustrates the percentage of school children attending four different types of secondary school from 2000 to 2009. To begin, the percentage of pupils in voluntary-controlled schools fell from just over half to only 20% or one fifth from 2000 to 2009. Similarly, the relative number of (4) in grammar schools -- just under one quarter -- dropped by half in the same period. As for the specialist schools, therelatively small percentage of pupils attending this type of school (12%) also fell, although not significantly.

However, while the other three types of school declined in importance, the opposite was true in the case of community schools. In fact, while only a small minority of 12% were educated in these schools in 2000, (5).....figure increased to well over half of all pupils during the following nine years.
