

How do plants make food?

6 MATCH to make sentences about photosynthesis.

a. Plants make their own food ●

● plants release oxygen into the air.

b. During photosynthesis, ●

● mineral salts, carbon dioxide and sunlight.

c. To make food, plants need water, ●

● through a process called photosynthesis.

7 COMPLETE the information about how plants make their own food.

3. The leaves absorb _____ from the air and trap sunlight. Plants use sunlight to transform carbon dioxide and raw sap into elaborated sap.

2. _____ travels
up the stem to the leaves.

1. Plants take in water and _____ from the _____ through their roots. This mixture is called raw sap.

4. _____
travels from
the leaves to other parts of the plant.

