

GRANDPA'S MOVIE NIGHT

Read the story. Write some words to complete the sentences about the story. Use 1, 2 or 3 words.

My name is Lucy. Last Saturday, I visited my grandpa. After dinner, he took out an old box from his cupboard. Inside, there were some black and white photos. One photo showed a big cinema building. I asked him about it, and he smiled.

"When I was a boy," he said, "we didn't have televisions at home. If we wanted to watch a movie, we went to the cinema. It was very exciting!"

He told me that he used to go with his friends every Saturday afternoon. They saved their pocket money all week to buy a ticket. The cinema was large and dark, and the seats were soft. The screen looked huge to him back then. Sometimes the movies had no sound. The actors didn't speak. Instead, there was a piano player near the stage who played music to show the mood of the story. If it was a scary part, the piano music was loud and fast. If it was sad, the music was slow and quiet.

Grandpa said they always talked about the movie on their way home. "We used our imagination more," he said. "It felt magical."

Listening to him, I wished I could watch a movie like that too.
