

1 Complete the sentences with the verbs in the box.

break	put	pick	turn	walk	drop
set	bring	head	keep	pull

- 0 After driving for four hours, we decided to pull over for a rest.
- 1 I wasn't expecting Matt to _____ up at our house on Saturday. I wish he'd called first.
- 2 I can _____ you off at the train station on my way to work.
- 3 My car is in poor condition, so I hope it doesn't _____ down during our trip.
- 4 My hiking companion is so fast that it's difficult to _____ up with her!
- 5 We plan to _____ off on our journey at 6 a.m. on Sunday.
- 6 It is not easy to _____ children up to be decent people when they have so many outside influences.
- 7 Sara wants us to _____ her up at the airport when she arrives on Saturday.
- 8 We were surprised when Tim decided to _____ away from his job to travel the world.
- 9 When you reach 15th Avenue, _____ for the big church, then turn right on Park Street.
- 10 We agreed to _____ up a friend for a few days when he was passing through town.

2 Choose one word, A, B or C to complete both sentences.

- 0 I pulled B and stopped the car so I could safely talk on the phone.
Just be patient. I'm sure the storm will be B soon.
A in B over C out
- 1 I hope we don't run _____ of money before the end of our holidays!
I'd like to try _____ that new type of snowboard and see how it feels.
A out B on C away
- 2 This sofa turns _____ a very comfortable bed when you fold it down.
Go _____ the station on the north side and I'll be waiting for you inside.
A up B down C into
- 3 I don't want to hold you _____ when you're in such a hurry.
It's difficult to put _____ a tent when you don't have all of the parts.
A up B out C off
- 4 I've seen enough of this place. Let's carry _____ with our tour.
Don't put your bag _____ the floor – someone might trip over it.
A for B up C on
- 5 You can't put _____ making a decision forever, so just make up your mind!
We should get _____ the train at the next station.
A off B away C up