PART 3 Questions 11-15

For each question, choose the correct answer.

What it means to be a Holiday Company Manager
by Mandy Jones

When I finished school, I did a business administration degree at Bristol University. After graduating, I worked for a credit card company for the next eight years. During all this time, I was an assistant marketing manager. Although I gained a lot of useful experience doing this job, last year I decided that I really needed a change. That's why I decided to move to Thomsen Holidays, where I have worked as a manager ever since. Here my main job is to think up new and interesting ideas for holidays.

When I have to work from my office in the UK, I arrive at 9am. The first thing I do is answer my e-mails, and then I plan the rest of my day. My main role is to look for new projects for Thomsen Holidays in our Mediterranean resorts. So, I have to come up with ideas, develop them and evaluate their success.

We have lots of meetings in the office on a daily basis, which involve the marketing department, holiday representatives and people that we bring in from outside, such as entertainment organisers. Our aim is to develop an exciting idea and turn it into a realistic and workable project.

Once a month I spend a few days overseas, checking possible resorts, meeting with reps to develop their roles and working out how events could be sold to the customer. I often work with resort supervisors, use their local knowledge of bars and clubs for venues, talk through new ideas and find out how existing ones are working. I also get the chance to meet holidaymakers. When I do that, though, I have to be very open-minded because ideas can actually come from anywhere.

I must say that I love my job for so many different reasons. But what I think I enjoy most is that I get to travel to all these amazing destinations while I'm actually being paid to do so. Not to mention that I work on projects that really excite me. I would never even consider changing jobs.

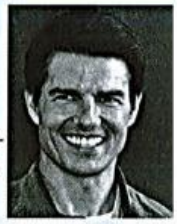
PART 3 Questions 11-15

For each question, write the correct answer.

Tom Cruise

by Sarah Holden



When our teacher asked us to interview a person that we admire, I had never thought I could actually interview Tom Cruise. I had been thinking for some time who else I could talk to, but it seemed to me that anyone else would come a poor second.

Then, one day, out of the blue, as I was enjoying a hot cup of chocolate in our local coffee shop, I heard a man asking me if he could sit next to me. As I turned around and saw Tom Cruise smiling at me, I was at a loss for words. He was so pleasant and friendly that I felt confident and asked him for a mini interview. Much to my surprise, he happily agreed.

Over the years, Tom Cruise has become one of the most popular and successful actors in the world. He has long been an international star, who gets paid millions of dollars for every film he makes. "I'm lucky," says Tom. "I'm doing what I love, and I'm having a great time. Lots of people would love to do this job, but they didn't get the chances that I did."

For many of us, however, Tom is more than just lucky or good-looking, as great acting ability and determination were needed for him to become one of Hollywood's biggest names.

Is Tom happy with his success so far? He has a different outlook on his career than one might expect. "I've always looked to the future," says Tom. "I feel I'm always developing as an actor. I'm looking for new things all the time. I want to challenge myself to be better and always try new things. I know I've made a lot of progress in my career, but I still have ambitions for the future."

After interviewing him, I understood that Tom Cruise has a mind of his own and he's not at all like the characters in his movies. That's why, I believe, he has had so much success in his career; because of both his talent as an actor and his personal strength. Tom always knew what he wanted to do with his life and did his best to succeed.

11. When Sarah was asked to interview the person she admired,

- A. she never thought that she was likely to talk to Tom Cruise.
- B. she was disappointed that her idol refused to talk to her.
- C. she could not make up her mind as to whom she admired the most.
- D. she was surprised to find out that she could write about a celebrity.

- A. is actually less friendly than he might seem.
- B. did not originally want to be interviewed.
- C. was uncomfortable talking about himself.
- D. is very likeable as a person.

13. What does Tom say about other people who try to become actors?

- A. They are not as hard working as successful actors.
- B. He was more fortunate at certain points in his career.
- C. They did not love the job as much as he did.
- D. He took more risks than them to achieve success.

14. How does Tom describe his attitude to his work?

- A. He is only interested in making millions of dollars as an international star.
- B. He is unlucky and has had many breaks in his career.
- C. He looks forward and wants to improve and develop.
- D. He is determined to become famous one day, whatever the cost.

15. What might Sarah say about Tom Cruise?

- A. "Tom Cruise's success seems to be more down to luck and connections than anything else."
- B. "Tom Cruise's success is such that almost anyone can achieve it quite easily."
- C. "Tom Cruise wouldn't be so successful if he didn't try and work so hard."
