Last month, our class worked on a project about family history. We each wrote about one (0) ancestor and how they influenced our lives. My great-grandfather was a(n) (1) _____ who fought in the war. I found his old uniform and medals in a box in the attic.

To (2) _____ his bravery, I made a presentation with photos and stories from his life. During the school exhibition, my little (3) _____ came to visit. She was very excited and asked many questions. The highlight of the event was when a student walked around the hall with a(n) (4) _____, just like in a real ceremony.

Later that evening, I bit into a hard candy and accidentally chipped some (5) _____ on my tooth. I had to visit the dentist the next day! Still, it was a(n) (6) _____ day, and I was proud to share my family's story.

IV. Read the text below and decide if each statement is TRUE or FALSE.

A Family Celebration

Last weekend, we had a big family gathering to celebrate my great-grandfather's centenary. It was a special occasion, so everyone dressed in formal clothes. I wore a white shirt, and my sister even wore a dress with shiny buttons on the cuff of each sleeve!

Many of our relatives came from other cities. My little niece and nephew ran around the garden, laughing and playing. Grandpa told stories about our ancestors, explaining how we are descended from people who moved here from France generations ago.

Statements:

0. The party was held to celebrate someone's 100th birthday.	True
