Insects are tiny creatures that do not have a backbone. They have three pairs of joint legs and a pair of antenna. There are over 1 million different types of identified insects in the world and many more are yet to be discovered and identified. Let us know more about these creatures.

20 THE WORLD OF INSECTS

Champion Insects

A. Read about some unique insects. To know their names, write the given letters in reverse order.

1. The most dangerous ant
It stings and bites at the same time and has been known to cause human deaths.
TNA GODLLUB KCALB

2. The most beautiful insect
With its rainbow-coloured wings, it looks like a butterfly but it is a moth. Because of its beauty, it is much sought after by collectors.
HTOM TESNUS

3. The loudest insect
Found in Africa, it can produce the sound of 106.7 decibel at a distance of 50 cm, about as loud as a power saw.
SIVERB ANASIVERB

4. The longest insect
With a length of 56.7 cm, nearly the length of an arm, this insect from Borneo is the world's longest insect.
KCITS TNAIG

5. The heaviest insect
The larval stage of this insects can reach a weight of up to 80-100 grams.
ELTEEB HTAILOG

6. The weirdest-shaped insect
It has an incredible structure on its back that resembles thorns and barbs.
GUB NROHT

7. The fastest flying insect
With a top speed of about 57 km/hr, it is the fastest insect on record.
YLFNOGARD

8. The longest lived insect known to live for 50 years, it is the largest member in its colony.
ETIMRET NEEUQ

LIVEWORKSHEETS