Children's Day Around the World

Children's Day is a special day to celebrate kids everywhere! On this day, children are thanked for bringing joy, love, and laughter to the world. Different countries have different ways of celebrating. Let's see how some children around the world enjoy their special day!

In Mexico, Children's Day is called El Día del Niño. It is celebrated on April 30th. Schools often have fun parties instead of regular classes. Kids play games, sing songs, and sometimes dress up in costumes. Parents and teachers give children candy, toys, and balloons. Everyone focuses on making children feel happy and loved!

In Japan, Children's Day is celebrated on May 5th. It is called Kodomo no Hi. Families decorate their homes with colorful fish-shaped flags called koinobori. The fish symbolize strength and courage. Parents also display special dolls that wear armor, to remind children to be brave. Kids eat a sweet rice cake called kashiwa mochi and spend the day with their families.

In India, Children's Day is on November 14th. It celebrates the birthday of a famous leader named Pandit Jawaharlal Nehru, who loved children very much. Schools organize fun shows, sports, and music. Teachers sometimes put on plays or dances for their students. People also talk about how to keep all children safe and happy.

LIVEWORKSHEETS

In China, Children's Day is celebrated on June 1st. Schools give students the day off! Parks, zoos, and movie theaters are full of families. Children get small gifts from their parents or teachers, and everyone enjoys time together. Some cities even have parades and concerts for kids!

No matter where you go, Children's Day is a time to celebrate the happiness, creativity, and importance of every child in the world.

Comprehension Questions

1. What is Children's Day for?
2. When is Children's Day in Mexico?
3. What do families in Japan hang outside their homes?
4. Who loved children in India?
5. What day do children in China celebrate Children's Day?
6. What are two things children do in Mexico on this day?
7. What do all countries do on Children's Day?

Fill in the Blank Questions

1. Children's Day is a special day to celebrate _____ everywhere.
2. In Mexico, Children's Day is called _____.
3. In Japan, families hang colorful _____-shaped flags called koinobori.
4. In India, Children's Day is on _____ 14th.

LIVEWORKSHEETS

5. In China, children often get small _____ from parents or teachers.

6. On Children's Day in Mexico, kids play _____ and sing songs.

7. In Japan, children eat a sweet rice cake called _____.

Multiple Choice Questions

1. When do people in Mexico celebrate Children's Day?
   a) June 1st
   b) April 30th
   c) November 14th
   d) May 5th

2. What do families in Japan hang outside their homes?
   a) Paper lanterns
   b) Colorful fish flags
   c) Toy kites
   d) Balloons

3. Who loved children very much in India?
   a) Mahatma Gandhi
   b) Pandit Jawaharlal Nehru
   c) Confucius
   d) The king of India

4. What do children in China often receive on Children's Day?
   a) Candy and toys
   b) Homework
   c) Small gifts
   d) Books to read

5. What do all countries do on Children's Day?
   a) Go to work
   b) Celebrate and make children happy
   c) Stay at home and sleep
   d) Watch TV all day

LIVEWORKSHEETS