Part I – Reading Comprehension (15 pts)

Read the text and answer the questions.

> My Daily Life Before and Now
When I was a child, I used to live in a small town. I used to play outside with my friends every afternoon. We didn't have many cars, so it was very safe.
Now, I live in the city. It's bigger and noisier than my old town. I have to take the bus to school every day, and I can't play outside because there's too much traffic. But I love my new school and my new friends.

Questions:

1. Where did the writer use to live?

2. What did the writer use to do every afternoon?

3. Why can't the writer play outside now?

4. Which place is bigger, the old town or the city?

5. Do you think the writer likes the city? Why or why not?
