The office picnic

An office picnic can be a delicious opportunity to have fun with your colleagues

² Abel & Cole is a British catering company. The company has a big office picnic every year. Gary Congress organises Abel & Cole's annual picnic. 'Christmas parties are great but they are quite formal; with a picnic it's much more relaxed,' he says. Employees like picnics because they can arrive and leave when they want to. They relax, eat and play games with family and colleagues.

³ But are picnics more of a problem to organise than other events? Many people don't like insects, noisy children or bad weather – and these can all happen on a picnic. Food is probably the main health and safety concern because hot weather makes it difficult to keep food cool and edible. Some types of food, such as fish, meat and cheese, are dangerous if they are in the sun too long.

⁴ A catering company can deliver food to a picnic. This is useful for companies with a large staff because it helps the food stay fresh. Managers can enjoy the picnic without worrying that half the workers may be ill the next day. Gary Congress recommends picnics as a staff social event. 'We put photos from the summer picnic all over the office and it brings back great memories.'
