We checked our _____ carefully to make sure all equipment was secure before continuing toward the mountains. Extra supplies were _____ because the weather in the region could change suddenly and create unexpected difficulties. Early the next morning, we set _____ feeling excited about the adventure ahead.

II. Choose the correct option.

The travel agency decided to offer/rent us a detailed guide so we could plan our holiday more confidently. I chose a(n) window/aisle seat on the plane because it allowed me to stand up easily during the long flight. The cabin crew reminded everyone to store large backpacks in the cabin/overhead compartment to keep the cabin organized. We needed permission/gate from the airline staff to board early since we were travelling with an elderly relative. I made a(n) insurance/request for information about connecting buses at the airport so we wouldn't get lost on arrival. The hotel clerk/board greeted us politely and helped us complete the check-in process without any stress. Before landing, the flight attendant told all passengers to fasten/delay their seat belts for safety.
