

REPORTED SPEECH

1. “I went to the cinema yesterday.” Lisa said.

Lisa said she had gone to the cinema yesterday.

Lisa said she went to the cinema the day before.

Lisa said she had gone to the cinema the day before.

2. “Where were you born?” Tom asked.

Tom asked me where I was born.

Tom asked me where I had been born.

Tom asked me where was I born.

3. “My friends can’t go to the party tomorrow.” She said.

She told her friends couldn’t go to the party the following day.

She said her friends couldn’t go to the party tomorrow.

She told me her friends couldn’t go to the party the following day.

4. “She will become a famous doctor.” Her mom said.

Her mom said she would become a famous doctor.

Her mom told her would become a famous doctor.

Her mom told me she could become a famous doctor.

5. “I have been to Moscow many times” Peter told Susie.

Peter said she had been to Moscow many times.

Peter told her he been to Moscow many times.

Peter told her he had been to Moscow many times.

6. “Do you like cooking?” Ann asked me.

She asked me do you liked cooking.

She asked me if I liked cooking.

She asked me whether liked I cooking.

7. “What are you going to do next week?” I asked Tom.

He asked me what I was going to do the following week.

I asked him what he was going to do the following week.

I asked him what was he going to do the following week.

8. “I am reading this book now.” Jenna said

Jenna said she was reading that book then.

Jenna said she was reading this book then.

Jenna said she was reading a book now.

9. “She plays the piano every day.” Her parents said to the teacher.

They said her she had played the piano every day.

They told her she play the piano every day.

They told her she played the piano every day.

10. “They took the 5 o’clock bus to London.” My father said.

My father told me they had taken the 5 o’clock bus to London.

My father told me they have taken the 5 o’clock bus to London.

My father told me they taken the 5 o’clock bus to London.