

THANKSGIVING

PART 1: READING COMPREHENSION

Read the text and answer the questions.

Thanksgiving Day is celebrated every year in the United States on the fourth Thursday of November. It began in 1621, when the Pilgrims and the Native Americans shared a meal to give thanks for the good harvest. Today, people celebrate by cooking turkey, watching parades, and spending time with family. Many families also say what they are thankful for before eating.
