We often use time expressions when we talk about the future. Here are some common future time expressions:

next week next month next year next Tuesday next July this evening this afternoon this week this year
on Monday
tomorrow
in a week's time in a month's time in a year's time

When we talk about more than one day, week, month or year, we write the apostrophe after the noun.

in two months' time in a few years' time

To talk about something that will happen in the very near future, we use soon.

Will you write soon?
