

Name: _____

Class: _____

No: _____

ENDANGERED SPECIES

Direction: Write T (true) if the sentence is true and F (false) if the sentence is false.

- _____ 1. The Baiji dolphin is a mammal that lives in a fishing village.
- _____ 2. Overfishing can threaten the survival of dolphins.
- _____ 3. The aye-aye lemur is a native animal of Madagascar.
- _____ 4. The aye-aye's large eyes reflect light in the rainforest.
- _____ 5. The bridled nail-tailed wallaby is facing extinction because of overhunting.
- _____ 6. Endangered species are animals that are safe and growing in number.
- _____ 7. Every mammal in the world is already extinct.
- _____ 8. Deforestation and hunting threaten the aye-aye's survival.
- _____ 9. The Baiji dolphin is unique because it lives only in the Yangtze River.
- _____ 10. Kangaroos are facing extinction due to overfishing.

Direction: Complete the sentences using If-Clause type O - 3.

- 1. If native _____ (hunt) the aye-aye, they _____ (be) lost in no time.
- 2. If the Baiji dolphin _____ (live) in clean rivers, it _____ (not be) endangered.
- 3. If people _____ (protect) the wallaby earlier, it _____ (face) extinction.
- 4. If people _____ (visit) the national park, they _____ (learn) more about the wallaby.
- 5. If one species _____ (be) endangered, then all species _____ (be) endangered.

