True FACT

The Divine Comedy is an Italian long narrative poem by Dante Alighieri, begun in c. 1308 and completed in 1320, a year before his death in 1321. It is widely considered to be the preeminent work in Italian literature and one of the greatest works in the world of literature. It is divided into three parts: Inferno, Purgatorio, and Paradiso. The narative describes Dante's travels through Hell, Purgatory, and Paradise or Heaven, while allegorically the poem represents the soul's journey towards God.
