

3

What's the difference?

- Use adjectives to describe different residential buildings
- Talk about changes through life

1

Each of the following questions has one grammatically correct option. Can you find it? Choose the correct one.

1. Which sentence is correct?

- A. This bed is too much small for two people.
- B. This bed is too small for two people.
- C. This bed is much too small for two people.

2. Which sentence is correct?

- A. I don't have many friends as you.
- B. I don't have as many friends as you.
- C. I don't have so many friends like you.

3. Which sentence is correct?

- A. The living room isn't spacious enoughly.
- B. The living room isn't spacious enough.
- C. The living room not spacious enough.

4. Which sentence is correct?

- A. There is too much noise in this neighborhood.
- B. There is too many noise in this neighborhood.
- C. There are too much noise in this neighborhood.

2

Rewrite each sentence using a different structure with the same meaning. Use too, enough, not as...as, as much/many as.

Example: This jacket is very expensive.

→ This jacket is too expensive.

I didn't get a lot of sleep last night.

The view isn't very beautiful.

There's a lot of sugar in this coffee.

My suitcase is very heavy to carry.