

Name:

Date:

Vocabulary: / 10

Grammar: / 10

1. Choose the correct option.

- Which school do your children?
a. apply b. perform c. attend
- How can she to buy herself a new flat?
a. participate b. afford c. progress
- I don't understand why Chris out of college a month before graduation.
a. dropped b. skipped c. failed
- You don't have to take any extracurricular activities. They are
a. compulsory b. optional c. inevitable
- Alan has been playing truant so often that he's fallen with his studies.
a. on b. back c. behind
- Why do you think these changes will be to the company?
a. benefit b. benefiting c. beneficial
- Exams are designed to test how well you can do under
a. heart b. pressure c. question
- For more information on university tuition, please contact the student services centre.
a. prices b. fees c. costs
- Shop assistants sometimes have to deal difficult customers.
a. with b. for c. in
- I didn't realise that writing a book so much work.
a. contained b. included c. involved

2. Choose the correct option.

- It so much every summer. This year has been very wet.
a. hasn't rained b. isn't raining c. doesn't rain
- Ben is excited because he the game at the moment.
a. is winning b. has won c. wins
- This is the second time I this film. It's amazing!
a. am seeing b. have seen c. see
- Look at your clothes! They're really dirty!
- That's because I with the dog in the garden.
a. play b. have played c. have been playing
- Nancy to the city centre by bus. She usually takes her bike.
a. hardly goes ever b. hardly ever goes c. goes hardly ever
- Mum will be home soon and I haven't finished all my chores
a. already b. yet c. still
- My parents have Liverpool. They'll be back on Monday.
a. gone to b. been to c. been in
- We met the Watsons in 2001, so we them for years.
a. know b. have known c. have been knowing
- Are you good at tennis? - Yes, I've been playing since I eight.
a. was b. am c. have been
- Scott has been offered a great job abroad and he of accepting it.
a. thinks b. thinking c. is thinking