Lions

The lion is a big powerful cat. It's probably the most famous members of the cat family .people are frightened by the lion's tundering and impressed by its strength and royal appearance. The lion is called the king of beasts, and is a well-known symbol of beauty and power.

The lion is the most companionable of all cats. A pride may include from 10-20 or as many as 35.Each pride has from one to five adult males, several lioness and cubs. The members of the pride may not always be together .Some of the lions may hunt in one place ,a few in another .But when they are united , they greet each other by rubbing cheeks.

Life with in the pride is peaceful .Lions usually spend about 20 hours a day sleeping or resting. Cubs chase each other and wrestle as they practice some of the skills they will need in their adult life .A lioness sometimes twitches her tail while one of her cub tries to catch the tuft of hair at the end of the tail. Hungry cubs nurse on any lioness that has milk not just their own mothers.

Lions have to kill to live .They prefer large prey zebra, various kinds of antelop, buffalo and warthog. But they will also eat fish, turtles and guinea fowl. anything they can catch.

The lion lives a life of feast and famine .It may not able to catch an animal for perhaps a week. But it usually catches something to eat every three or four days. A male lion can eat 35 kg of meat in one meal. One lion can drag a 270 Kg Zebra.
