

Before applying

Question Yourself

You know that you really enjoy watching movies while eating Ben & Jerry's ice cream. Good! You know what you like, but how can you translate your love of movies and junk food into a real job? If you have no idea what your dream job might be, try asking yourself these key questions (keep in mind there are no right or wrong answers):

1. What do I like to do for fun?
2. Whom do I most admire? Why?
10. What does she/he do for a living?
3. What is my most important achievement?
4. What is my happiest memory in school?
5. What is my favorite class? Why?
6. Where do I see myself ten years from now?

15. Now look at your answers. Do they share any similar themes? Are there any that feel exciting? Or make you wish for more? By simply looking at the similarities between your answers, you might discover the type of job, or at least the field or industry, that would make
20. you the happiest.

Teen Dream Jobs, Nora E. Coon, 2003

1) What do you learn(apprendre) about the author ?

.....

2) What do you learn(apprendre) about the subject ?

.....

3) Read the text and make sure you understand its structure.

.....

4) Why are some words in orange ?

.....

5. TIME TO WRITE : Réponds aux 6 questions, ensuite suis les instructions dans le dernier paragraphe.

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....