Name: Score:

22 Multiple choice questions

Term 1 of 22

Was long hit by the bullet of more than one gun?

- He built roads and provided free text books
- Yes, he shot long and then the surgery failed to stop internal bleeding.
- By talking about how he wanted to be president.
- No, he ran away before he could be shot again

Term 2 of 22

What are two reasons some people opposed Long so much?

- Manipulating the boundaries of an electoral constituency to favor 1 party/class
- The share our wealth program, which was designed to end poverty.
- 1.Some thought he was crude or corrupt. 2. They also did not like his policies towards big businesses.
- The wealthy would be taxed more, giving every family a minimum income of at least $5,000. And no one should have more than $1 million a year.

Term 3 of 22

What did long talk about on his national radio broadcast?

- The share our wealth program, which was designed to end poverty.
- DR. Carl Weiss
- Share Our Wealth
- The wealthy would be taxed more, giving every family a minimum income of at least $5,000. And no one should have more than $1 million a year.

Term 4 of 22

What did Huey do when he lost his 1st race for governor?

- He looked at what happened during the last race so he could know how to gain the support of people who didn't support him the first time
- It allowed poor people to vote for free (most of his supporters were poor); He abolished pole tax
- He threatened to take their airbase since they were "so well off" making them agree to having free text books
- He wanted to become president.

Term 5 of 22

Identify Long's assassin?

- The wealthy would be taxed more, giving every family a minimum income of at least $5,000. And no one should have more than $1 million a year.
- Share Our Wealth
- The share our wealth program, which was designed to end poverty.
- DR. Carl Weiss

LIVEWORKSHEETS

Term 6 of 22

How did Long die?

- He wanted to become president.
- By talking about how he wanted to be president.
- Long died two days after being shot by Dr. Wiess
- He got his nickname from the "Amos and Andy" radio show

Term 7 of 22

Tell how long proposed to punish his enemy?

- He wanted to gerrymand him
- He wanted to become president.
- He built roads and provided free text books
- He got his nickname from the "Amos and Andy" radio show

Term 8 of 22

Explain why he shot Long?

- He wanted to gerrymand him
- Because he fired his father-in-law
- By talking about how he wanted to be president.
- He wanted to become president.

Term 9 of 22

Name two positive actions by Governor Long?

- No, he ran away before he could be shot again
- He wanted to become president.
- He built roads and provided free text books
- He wanted to gerrymand him

Term 10 of 22

Identify the name of Long's poverty program?

- The wealthy would be taxed more, giving every family a minimum income of at least $5,000. And no one should have more than $1 million a year.
- The share our wealth program, which was designed to end poverty.
- Share Our Wealth
- DR. Carl Weiss

Term 11 of 22

How did Long convince Shreveport to accept free textbooks?

- It allowed poor people to vote for free (most of his supporters were poor); He abolished pole tax
- By talking about how he wanted to be president.
- He looked at what happened during the last race so he could know how to gain the support of people who didn't support him the first time
- He threatened to take their airbase since they were "so well off" making them agree to having free text books

LIVEWORKSHEETS