

Term

12 of 22

Define gerrymandering

- ☐ The wealthy would be taxed more, giving every family a minimum income of at least $5,000. And no one should have more than $1 million a year.
- ☐ The share our wealth program, which was designed to end poverty.
- ☐ Manipulating the boundaries of an electoral constituency to favor 1 party/class
- ☐ DR. Carl Weiss

Term

13 of 22

Did the doctor fire the shot that killed Long?

- ☐ He built roads and provided free text books
- ☐ No, he ran away before he could be shot again
- ☐ Yes, he shot Long and then the surgery failed to stop internal bleeding.
- ☐ He threatened to take their airbase since they were "so well off" making them agree to having free text books

Term

14 of 22

Identify the political enemy Long wanted to punish?

- ☐ It allowed poor people to vote for free (most of his supporters were poor); He abolished pole tax
- ☐ No, he ran away before he could be shot again
- ☐ Judge Benjamin
- ☐ He wanted to gerrymand him

Term

15 of 22

How did Long envision wealth to be shared?

- ☐ The wealthy would be taxed more, giving every family a minimum income of at least $5,000. And no one should have more than $1 million a year.
- ☐ Share Our Wealth
- ☐ No
- ☐ The share our wealth program, which was designed to end poverty.

Term

16 of 22

Define homestead exemption?

- ☐ He threatened to take their airbase since they were "so well off" making them agree to having free text books
- ☐ Because he fired his father-in-law
- ☐ He looked at what happened during the last race so he could know how to gain the support of people who didn't support him the first time
- ☐ The legal regime designed to protect the values of the homes of residents from property taxes, creditors, and circumstances arising from death of the homeowner spouse.

Term

17 of 22

How were the tax proposals designed to help his supporters?

- ☐ He threatened to take their airbase since they were "so well off" making them agree to having free text books
- ☐ By talking about how he wanted to be president.
- ☐ He looked at what happened during the last race so he could know how to gain the support of people who didn't support him the first time
- ☐ It allowed poor people to vote for free (most of his supporters were poor); He abolished pole tax

Term

18 of 22

What was Long's ultimate political goal?

- ☐ He wanted to gerrymand him
- ☐ He wanted to become president.
- ☐ He built roads and provided free text books
- ☐ He got his nickname from the "Amos and Andy" radio show

Term

19 of 22

How many bills were passed by the LA legislature between August 1934 and September 1935?

- ☐ Share Our Wealth
- ☐ The share our wealth program, which was designed to end poverty.
- ☐ No
- ☐ 463

Term

20 of 22

Was the medical care long received correct?

- ☐ The share our wealth program, which was designed to end poverty.
- ☐ The wealthy would be taxed more, giving every family a minimum income of at least $5,000. And no one should have more than $1 million a year.
- ☐ No
- ☐ Share Our Wealth

Term

21 of 22

How did long affect the New Deal?

- ☐ He got his nickname from the "Amos and Andy" radio show
- ☐ He threatened to take their airbase since they were "so well off" making them agree to having free text books
- ☐ Long died two days after being shot by Dr. Wiess
- ☐ By talking about how he wanted to be president.

Term

22 of 22

Where did Long's nickname come from?

- ☐ He built roads and provided free text books
- ☐ He wanted to become president.
- ☐ By talking about how he wanted to be president.
- ☐ He got his nickname from the "Amos and Andy" radio show