

LISTENING

1 You will hear a woman called Elisa Williams telling a group of students about her work as a travel writer. Tick (✓) the topics she mentions.

- 1 when she became a travel writer
- 2 where her travel writing appears
- 3 how much money she makes for her work
- 4 what she does when she visits places
- 5 how long it takes her to write an article
- 6 the best holiday she has ever had
- 7 places she wants to visit in the future
- 8 the most difficult part of her job

<input type="checkbox"/>
<input type="checkbox"/>
<input type="checkbox"/>
<input type="checkbox"/>
<input type="checkbox"/>
<input type="checkbox"/>
<input type="checkbox"/>
<input type="checkbox"/>

2 For each question, write the correct answer in the gap. Write one or two words, a number, a date or a time.

A travel writer

Elisa has been a full-time travel writer for
(1) years.

Most of Elisa's travel writing appears in (2)

Elisa avoids travelling by
(3) if possible.

Elisa always tries to learn a
(4) in every place she visits.

Elisa aims to visit some
(5) in the future.

Elisa says she finds it difficult to write the
(6) of a travel
article.