Last Saturday my friends and I spent our free time together. In the morning we went to the skating rink in our town. The weather was cold, but we had a great time. After that, we visited our friend Emma. She showed us a new social network she downloaded the day before. We watched funny videos there, but I almost fell from my chair because one video was really dangerous!

In the evening we decided to hang out in the park instead of staying home. We talked, laughed, and took pictures. It was definitely one of the best days of our holidays.
