

The Rhetorical Triangle

Match the correct answer to the question by choosing the correct option (A to G).

- | | |
|--|--|
| 1. What are the three elements of the Rhetorical Triangle? _____ | A. An expert in a field discussing their research. |
| 2. What does Ethos refer to in the Rhetorical Triangle? _____ | B. Ethos builds trust and authority, making the audience more likely to believe the speaker. |
| 3. What is Pathos in the context of the Rhetorical Triangle? _____ | C. Logos provides logical evidence and reasoning, helping to convince the audience. |
| 4. Can you give an example of Ethos? _____ | D. It refers to the credibility or ethical appeal of the speaker. |
| 5. How does Ethos affect persuasion? _____ | E. A speaker can use stories or vivid language to evoke emotions in the audience. |
| 6. What role does Logos provide in an argument? _____ | F. The three elements are Ethos, Pathos, and Logos. |
| 7. How can a speaker use Pathos effectively? _____ | G. It is the emotional appeal used to persuade the audience. |