

Teacher Nicole

Lesson 11. Used to

Task 1. Discuss the questions

1. Do you have children?
2. If yes, how many children do you have? Tell about them.
3. If not, do you want to have children? Why? Why not?
4. How does life change after having children?

Task 2. Look at the picture and make some guesses

This is Bryan Albrandt and he has kids.

How do you think these areas of his life changed?

- housework
- going out
- music and TV
- food
- leisure activities (=activities that you do when you have free time)

Task 3. Fill in the gaps with missing information rap nice clean season wallet laundry fancy kids three metal leave

1. He used to have a _____, _____ house.
2. He didn't use to have so much _____.
3. He used to _____ home only with his keys and _____.
4. He used to listen to gangsta _____ and heavy _____.
5. He didn't use to watch other _____ playing games on YouTube.
6. He used to watch the whole _____ of a TV show just in _____ days.
7. He used to go to the _____ restaurants.

Task 4. Look at the sentences and answer the questions

1. He used to listen to gangsta rap and heavy metal .
2. He didn't use to watch other kids playing games on YouTube.

- Are these sentences about present, past or future?
- Does this guy still do these actions?
- Are these actions repeated or single?

Look at the highlighted construction and complete the notes

+ subject + _____ + V

- subject + _____ + _____ + V

? _____ + subject + _____ + V

Task 5

Distribute the phrases into the correct columns.

I usually / always / never + Present Simple.

I usually / always / never + Past Simple.

when I was a child / younger + Past Simple.

I always keep + ing ...

I always kept + ing ...

I can't imagine my life without + N / ing ...

I couldn't imagine my life without + N / ing ...

There was a time when I ...

Present Habits	Past Habits