6 MEETING PEOPLE IN A NEW CITY

Read about two people's lives in a new city, then answer the questions.

Jack is 25 years old and lives in London. He is moving to London in 6 months because he has a new job in the city. Jack has never been to London, and he does not know anybody who lives in the city. He is very nervous about making new friends because he is shy and has not made any new friends since he was in school. However, in order to meet new friends, he plans to join a local football team because he loves playing football. He also plans to go and watch Chelsea football club—surely he will meet new friends there! Jack also believes he will be able to hang out with his colleagues after work or even at the weekend because he will have lots of free time.

Hi there! My name is Nathan. I am 33 years old and I live in Buenos Aires. I moved here 3 months ago from the United States of America. I am really enjoying my time in the city because I have made lots of friends. When I arrived, I joined a language club because I needed to learn Spanish, and I have been a member of the language club ever since. We are a group of ten people who meet three times a week to practise and improve our Spanish. I have made some close friends within the group who I hang out with on the weekends. My best friend is Charlie. She is funny and generous, but the quality I like most about her is that she is adventurous—we are even going rock climbing next week!

Decide if the following statements are true or false.

1. Jack has been living in London for 6 months.
2. Jack is nervous about making new friends because he is shy.
3. Jack thinks that he won't have anything in common with his new colleagues.
4. Nathan is having a difficult time making new friends.
5. Nathan met a great group of people at a language club.
6. Nathan likes Charlie because she is friendly and intelligent.

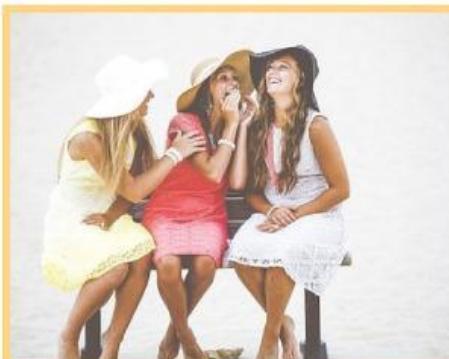

Answer the questions.

1. Why is Jack nervous about moving to London?
2. How does Jack plan to meet new people?
3. How did Nathan make new friends in Buenos Aires?
4. Describe Nathan's language club.
5. Use adjectives from exercise 3 to describe Jack and Nathan. Explain your answers.
