TASK 2: Complete the table.

Step 1: Match the details to the correct idea. Each idea has 2 details.

Step 2: Match suitable examples with details. Each detail has 1 example

Note: There is no single correct answer. It's okay if your answer is not the same as the example answer.

IDEAS	DETAILS	EXAMPLE
Coming into contact with other teenagers with similar interests	- 2. helping you become more confident	- h. Speaking in front of the group during a clean-up meeting made me less afraid of sharing my ideas
	- 4. sharing common interests and values	- f. In the reading club, I quickly became friends with students who also love detective stories.
Improving essential life skills
Appreciating the good things in life and being positive Helping teenagers find a sense of purpose in life
Gaining life experiences

LIVEWORKSHEETS

Detail list:

1. handle real-life situations without being told what to do
2. ~~helping you become more confident~~
3. discover what you enjoy by trying different volunteer tasks
4. ~~sharing common interests and values~~
5. see difficult situations that help you realise your own luck
6. build communication skills
7. create real value for others through simple actions
8. notice small good things in life while helping people
9. learn new things outside the classroom through activities
10. improve time management skills.

Example list

a. Handing out bowls of hot soup at the charity kitchen made me feel my help truly mattered.
b. During the community clean-up, I learned how to sort different kinds of waste properly.
c. When our group ran out of gloves, I had to go and find more on my own.
d. Seeing a little kid smile after receiving donated toys made me appreciate small happy moments.
e. At the orphanage, I met children who wished for things I already have every day, like a full meal.
f. ~~In the reading club, I quickly became friends with students who also love detective stories.~~
g. While tutoring younger students, I realised I enjoy explaining things and might be good at teaching.
h. ~~Speaking in front of the group during a clean-up meeting made me less afraid of sharing my ideas.~~
i. To join the weekend volunteer trip, I had to finish my homework the night before.
j. When collecting donated books, I had to talk to each class clearly so they knew what to bring.

LIVEWORKSHEETS