 at first by chance

Hi Shaun,

How are you? I'm really sorry that I couldn't come to your party on Saturday but something very strange and <sup>1</sup>out of the ordinary happened to me and I missed the train.

As I was walking to the station,

<sup>2</sup> , I found a wallet in the street. There was a man in front of me walking fast; he was certainly <sup>3</sup>  so I called out to him to ask if it was his wallet, but it wasn't.

<sup>4</sup> , I didn't know if I should pick up the wallet, but then I decided I would take it to the police station. So I picked it up and walked off. As soon as I had the wallet in my hand, I felt really nervous and thought that someone was watching me. It was

<sup>5</sup>  the strangest feeling that I'd had in ages. Suddenly, I saw two men running towards me, holding a video camera. I thought they were spies!

<sup>6</sup> , it was a TV crew. They were filming for that show Who's Looking at You? They were doing an experiment to see what would happen if you left a wallet in the street. They gave me a prize!

Hope to see you soon,

Joe
