The illustration shows two young girls standing in front of a large, leafy green plant with many small yellow flowers. The girl on the left has blonde hair and is wearing a pink polka-dot shirt. The girl on the right has dark hair in a ponytail and is wearing a red striped shirt with blue overalls. They are both gesturing with their hands as if in conversation. On the wall behind them are two framed pictures: one of a girl in a white dress standing in a field of yellow flowers, and another of a traditional house with a thatched roof and a flagpole.
