

A. Read the text and choose the Right Answer a,b,or c : 25

The stresses of school life make us sometimes feel unhappy, depressed, out of control and have low self-esteem. We may feel less motivated in our classrooms or careless about doing homework so that our marks may become low. Some school problems are finding school work difficult, having problems in classrooms especially if others are noisy, not getting on with teachers, problems at home, and bullies who often cause complicated problems.
