Hi Priya,

Would you like to go to the bowling alley with me next week? I haven't been there since last year and I really enjoy bowling. There's a great snack bar there, so we can eat something too. You told me you went to the new adventure park. Perhaps we can go there together one weekend. My brother's just gone to the basketball court – he's playing basketball with his friends. He does that every Saturday. I'm home alone now so I'm going to watch that new drama series. I haven't watched TV this week. That's because my brother always chooses the TV programmes. He loves that reality TV show In the Forest and watches it every day. I don't like it, and he doesn't like drama!
