It's time for this year's Summer Festival!

We're looking forward to seeing you in our village from 17th to 19th August to enjoy the live music from local musicians and delicious food, tea and coffee made by the Lemon Tree Café.
There is no entry charge and the festival is on from mid-morning until late evening.
Bring your umbrella in case it rains!
See you there!

B

Thank you very much for your email about taking part in the Summer Festival.
We have a stage and there will be electricity for your instruments and microphones. TV cameras will be filming the festival, so make sure you're ready to start playing between 18.00 and 19.00.
Let us know what type of music you play because we would like to have different styles of music this year.

C

As we only have one Summer Festival a year, I hope it is better this time. The organisers should think about everyone in the village. There are families with young children, teenagers and older people who all want to enjoy the music. Last year, the musicians played well but the music was all the same style. The food was good but there wasn't very much for vegetarians.

D

If you aren't doing anything on the 17th, would you like to come to the Summer Festival with me? I know it rained, but we had a good time last year, didn't we? My neighbour is one of the organisers and she's told me that it's going to be a bigger event this year with five bands and a lot more food!
Hope you can come!

B Yesterday I checked out the new shopping centre that's opened near the metro station. Lots of our classmates were there too. It's a great place. I'm thinking of having my birthday party in one of the cafés. Anyway, you should come with me next Saturday to see for yourself. We'll have loads of fun and maybe watch a film!

The new shopping centre opened on Saturday 5th.
Several celebrities came, lots of local people were there and the mayor made an excellent speech. We all celebrated with delicious food and drinks. The shopping centre manager offered the first hundred customers a 10% discount.

Welcome to our new shopping centre! We're now open and looking forward to serving you.
The wide variety of shops, excellent quality of the products and the friendly shop assistants will make your visit a wonderful experience!
Getting here is extremely easy and very cheap.
Park your car and then shop around, have a delicious snack or coffee at the excellent cafés and finish your day at the cinema!

The shopping centre is open from 8.30 a.m. to 9.00 p.m.
Access to the area is easy, either by metro (the Blue Line, get off at Peace Station) or by bus (number 423, bus stop 31).
For those customers wishing to use their cars, there is an underground car park, which stays open from 7.00 a.m. to midnight. The hourly charge is 2 euros.
