

LIST 8 – VOCABULARY WORKSHEET

Word	Phonetic Pronunciation
Consummation	/kən-səˈmeɪ-fən/
Complacent	/kəmˈpleɪ-sənt/
Collateral	/kəˈlæ-tə-rəl/
Contingent	/kənˈtɪn-jənt/
Commiserate	/kəmɪ-zə-reɪt/
Contrive	/kənˈtraɪv/
Compulsory	/kəmˈpʌl-sə-ri/
Contrition	/kənˈtri-fən/
Compatible	/kəmˈpæ-tə-bəl/

EXERCISES

A. Match the word to its correct definition.

- a. To feel or express sympathy
- b. Required by law or rules
- c. Dependent on some preceding occurrence or condition
- d. A feeling of deep remorse
- e. Satisfied to the point of not trying harder
- f. Able to exist or work together
- g. The final completion of something
- h. Something pledged as security

C. I Use these words in sentences.

- 1. Commiserate _____
- 2. Compatible _____
- 3. Collateral _____
- 4. Consummation _____

D. Choose the correct word.

- 1. When two people work well together, they are (contrition / compatible / complacent).
- 2. Something required by the law is (compulsory / collateral / contingent).
- 3. If something happens only if a condition (contrition / compatible / contrite / contrition).