

Adjectives

A. Choose A, B or C to fill the gaps.

1. Was your test than mine?
A. more difficult B. difficult C. most difficult
2. These trees are in the forest.
A. taller B. more tall C. the tallest
3. This village is prettier the village we saw yesterday.
A. from B. than C. of
4. This is the hardest exercise
A. in the book B. than that one C. from the lesson
5. This is shop in the city.
A. good B. better C. the best

B. Choose A to F to fill the gaps. You will use ONLY FIVE of the letters.

A. less, B. best, C. taller, D. more, E. better, F. worse

Jason is 1.69m tall. His sister is 1.72m tall, so she is (1) than him.

Jason is a good student, but his sister is (2) than he is. She always gets very high marks.

Jason's sister has a few hobbies, but Jason has (3) hobbies that she has.

Jason's sister spends a lot of money on new clothes. Jason doesn't.

He spends (4) money than her.

Their father is a doctor. He is the (5) doctor in their town.

C. Put the adjectives in the correct form.

1. She has got a camera. Her camera was than mine. (expensive)
2. These boys play basketball. They are boys in the school. (tall)
3. Mary always helps me to do my maths problems. She is at maths than I am. (good)
4. My friend never studies. He is student in the class. (bad)
5. John always tells jokes. He is of all my friends. (funny)
6. His sister's bedroom is than his. (big)
7. This is the story of all. (interesting)
8. Everybody likes Gina. She is of all my classmates. (kind)