1. Tony's and Sheila's first home (1) was a semi-detached house (2), one of a line of houses (3) all connected (4).
2. I don't like Max's and Jane's new house (1) which (2) they bought last month (3) on the outskirts (4) of Bristol.
3. Peter and Helen's stories (1) were completely different (2), so (3) I didn't know which to believe (4).
4. If you have a look (1) at Mary's and Peter's house (2), it becomes obvious (3) they have excellent taste (4).
5. Do you remember Mum's and Dad's invitation (1) to join them (2) for the picnic (3) this weekend (4)?
6. I disapprove of (1) Harry's and Sally's decision (2) to rent a flat (3) on the outskirts (4) of the city.
7. I'm writing to invite you all (1) to a party (2) because (3) we're celebrating grandma's and grandpa's 50th wedding anniversary (4)!
8. Rose's and David's engagement (1) has turned out (2) to be a total failure (3) because they have nothing in common (4).
9. I can't say I approve of (1) Fred's and Chris's suggestion (2) to set up (3) their family business (4) abroad.
10. John's and Jane's new flat (1) is twice as big as (2) the one (3) they used to live in up until last month (4).
