You are going to hear a woman talking about a new idea for reducing pollution in Kenya. Listen and complete the notes with a word or short phrase or a number. Type the answers.

1. The population of Kenya's capital Nairobi, is about _____.
2. About 5,000 people die in Kenya every year as a result of _____.
3. When people chop down trees, it leads to a loss of _____ for many animals.
4. Many people can't _____ alternative fuels.
5. More people are moving to the big cities in search of _____.
6. There are now about _____ of Koko's machines in Nairobi.
7. Bioethanol is a natural by-product of the _____ industry.
8. The environmental cost of bioethanol used to be high because it came in _____.
9. Koko's containers connect to both the fuel dispensing machine and people's _____.
10. The speaker jokes that Koko haven't found a solution to the problem of _____ in the country.

LIVEWORKSHEETS